- Hoping to get a lot of volunteers for the war bird race. Need to keep the shifts to a half day if possible.

D. New Business:

- Welcome to our first Open House to possible new members and Guests.
- Apple Valley Airshow is a bust due to lack of feedback from the airshow coordination team. We are not perusing any venue. It would be better to not involve ourselves this year due to lack of coordination from the airshow coordination team.
- New product was tried on the runway. It works better than the Aguaphalt for the type of cracks we need addressed thanks to Dan, Chris, Jay and Andrew for spearheading this effort. The new product cost 26 dollars for a bucket of 25 pounds fills roughly four large cracks. We also used pea gravel to fill the large gaps.
